

MRPC Resolution 2015 St Cloud, MN

WHEREAS, the Mississippi River Parkway Commission (MRPC) gathered at St. Cloud, Minnesota, April 22 through 25, 2015, along the Great River Road; and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Commissioners planned, developed, organized and provided an outstanding educational itinerary; and

WHEREAS, commissioners from eight states along the Great River Road have benefitted from the collegial fellowship and increasing knowledge of the most important National Scenic Byway in the nation; and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota MRPC unified representatives and developed focus in promoting corridor communities along the Great River Road; and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota MRPC strengthened perceptions basic to enhancing total tourism along the Great River Road; and

WHEREAS, the Minnesota MRPC provided insight to the intrinsic qualities and rich culture of the Mississippi River region,

Therefore, BE IT RESOLVED, April 24, 2015, at St. Cloud, Minnesota, that the Mississippi River Parkway Commission expresses appreciation to all the Minnesota contacts in giving us this wonderful Native American experience, in hosting the Semi-Annual 2015 meeting and three Strategic planning groups and by providing the ultimate example of Minnesota NICE.

Terri Austin McCullough, Ph.D.